Close 4 in MTO

Spvrs. stir road action

After being closed for several hours by an order of the board of supervisors, four roads in the MTO area were opened Friday when the Corps of Engineers agreed to resume efforts to obtain federal funds to maintain the roads used by heavy equipment and trucks.

At a meeting Friday morning, supervisors H. G. Dean and Dolph Kellar of Beas 1 and 2 told other board members the roads had become virtually impassable and in at least one case a truck was bogged down in the middle of the road. Kellar said he had seen a letter stating that federal funds were available for maintenance of the roads and President R. G. Hubbard, Jr., said the board had been negotiating with NASA and corps officials for several months but nothing had been done to relieve the situation.

Shortly after getting approval of the board Dean and Kellar barricaded the roads and posted guards. They were removed about 5:30 p.m. following a conference between the Engineers and board members. Friday's board meeting had been adjourned shortly before noon until Feb. 3, Hubbard announced.

9.5 inches rain bog MTO work

Personnel count at Mississippi Test Operations climbed up to 575 this week as activity commenced on several recently awarded contracts and the weather improved slightly.

Mud and cold weather slowed work appreciably during January with 9.5 inches of rain falling during 16 days this month. That's almost twice as much as during the same month of 1963 when 5.42 inches was recorded. In all of last March, April and May only 5.89 inches fell.

"The effect on the job is very obvious," Mack Herring of the MTO information office said, but it has not yet been determined how many working days were lost. With good weather, contractors should be able to catch up with their schedule.

Contractor personnel this week totaled 312 against 244 last week and the Corps of Engineers has added seven to its force on the site.

So far 40 construction and procurement contracts have been awarded for a total of $67,844,000.

A contract for more than $5 million is expected to be awarded for construction of fuel facilities soon after bids are opened on Feb. 27 by Army Engineers in Mobile. The call

12 floats sign for Carnival

Twelve floats have signed so far for the Krewe of Chicopoula's annual parade on Mardi Gras Day, O. O. Swords, president of the sponsoring Bay Central Parent-Teacher Assn., said this week.

Call colonels to meet on schools

The county board of education is scheduled to meet at 9:30 a.m. Saturday with Gov. Paul Johnson's local colonels in an effort to arrive at a plan for legislative relief from the impact on the school system resulting from Mississippi Test Operations.

The conference was proposed by State Rep. Walter J. Phillips, who also is attorney for the school board, after discussing Hancock County's peculiar problems with fellow legislators. He was advised the governor would rely heavily on advice of his colonels on local sentiments.

Phillips told the board last Saturday he hoped to work out an amendment to allow the county to receive state aid for buildings and teachers on the basis of the current average daily attendance rather than the previous year's, as well as authority to purchase land immediately for school expansion.

The attorney reported the necessary papers for the proposed $350,000 bond issue to finance three construction projects are in order, but was told to delay requesting the board of supervisors for an election on the plan until more detailed building plans can be prepared to present to the voters.

Fred Wagner, architect who is preparing plans for the construction program, told the board that after conferences at Hancock North Central School it appeared the athletic dressing rooms, coaches offices, etc., sought there would run into a $50,000 to $60,000 project and needs further study of the over-all situation. At Gulfview School a big question is

Warn lounges serving minors after stabbing

"Any lounge caught serving alcoholic beverages to minors or allowing minors inside will be closed and prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law", Sheriff Sylvan J. Ladner, Jr., announced Wednesday adding that such establishments must post signs stating "No minors allowed". In the case of restaurants and lounges operating in the same building, the lounge must be separated by a partition and a sign posted there, he said.

Doug's Mardi Gras Lounge, about two miles west of Bay St. Louis on U. S. 90, operated by Douglas Ives, was closed by

State health board opens county survey

A household health survey of Hancock County will be undertaken during the next two weeks by a trained team of interviewers from the Mississippi Board of Health as a state-wide survey, Dr. J. A. Milne, acting director of the county health department, has announced.

Aim is to determine the immunization levels of Mississippians, particularly the number of children under 5 who are protected against polio, diphtheria, whooping cough, tetanus, typhoid and smallpox. "Fulllest cooperation" of those visited by the team, which will have proper identification, was urged by Dr. Milne as information must be complete and accurate. It will be treated as confidential and used to plan and improve programs to provide more and better health services in the state.

Monday lunches set by Chamber

Board of directors of the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce Monday night decided to meet informally for luncheon each Monday from 12 noon to 1 p.m. Any chamber member who wants to take part in these discussions will be welcomed at these duty treat meetings which will be at Ray's Restaurant.

The formal meeting of the board of directors will continue to be in the Chamber of Commerce office at 7:30 p.m. on the third Monday of each month.

PENNIE SUE WEBRE
Pennie Sue Webre cops honors at Southern

Pennie Sue Webre, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Webre, and a sophomore at the University of Southern Mississippi, has been selected in a student election as one of the top 20 beauties at Southern. She was also in the final run-offs for Sophomore Favorite Girl.

Pennie, who is secretary of Alpha Sigma Alpha social sorority, was chosen by Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity to be a model for their annual calendar. She will represent the month of July. Last year, Pennie was first alternate in the best dressed contest. This year she has again been chosen one of the top 10 best dressed coeds on campus, and will participate in the best dressed contest on Feb. 11.

Voters approval for the $3 million bond issue utility improvements will probably be sought in an election in early March. This was disclosed Tuesday night when a 16-member board of directors was organized to spearhead a voter information program about the proposed bond issue. The group will be known as the Citizens Progress Committee.

At the same time the voters will be asked to approve a city sales tax increase from one-half cent to one cent. Of 159 Mississippi municipalities, Bay St. Louis is one of 33 who do not levy the full one cent sales tax authorized by the state and financing plans for the bond issue call for the increased levy.

Directors present elected Joseph L. Marochino as chairman; Dr. A. K. Martinovich, Jr., vice chairman; Robert Hamilton, secretary; and E. M. Brignac, treasurer.

Other directors, who were elected by the 25 or so people, mainly representatives from the city's various organizations, present at Coast Electric Power Assn.'s office were: Joseph Benvenuti, Dr. Marion Wolfe, Jr., Powell Glass, Jr., John Rutherford, Mrs. Leo Seal, Earl Ramond, Rev. Charles Johnson, Msgr. James J. Hamon, J. B. Burrow, Joseph R. Schmitt, J. S. Price and Boston Edmondson.

4 or 5 new TB cases here

Four and possibly five new cases of tuberculosis have been detected in Hancock County in recent weeks, Dr. William Watkins, clinician assigned to the health department, reported yesterday, contrary to rumors of an epidemic.

This reflects only a slight upward trend, he observed, in comparison with 10 in all of 1963.

Most new cases were direct contacts, Dr. Watkins said. X-rays are being made only in the immediate families and close friends, with follow ups under the usual policy over a year's period.

The mobile x-ray unit is due at the health department on Dunbar Avenue in late March or early April and the health officer urged the public at large to have their chests checked at this time. On last fall's visit only 85 persons were x-rayed whereas equipment can handle 350 to 400 persons in a morning.

See hospital start in April if US gives A-OK

Construction should start in April on the 36-bed addition to Hancock General Hospital if all goes well, Administrator Thomas O. Logue said yesterday on return from Atlanta and Washington where papers were filed to secure the $272,000 federal grant for the job. The county's $175,000 bond issue to raise matching funds has been sold and money turned in.

Word is expected Saturday or Monday on whether the county properly qualified by the Jan. 31 deadline to get the funds under the Accelerated Public Works Act. Logue reported all the pieces seemed to fall properly into place and state and federal authorities were most helpful. He was accompanied on the trip by Cornelius Ladner, president of the hospital board, and Dr. W. L. McFarland of the medical staff.

Architects' plans are 35 per cent complete now and should be through within 60 days after which bids can be sought. The addition will give the hospital 56 regular beds, 26 more than at present since 10 existing beds are lost in expanding the plant. Finished job will have 20 private beds and 36 semi-private.

In Washington they met with Mel Taft, head of hospital facilities of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, (Cont. on Page 6.)

We're trying to think of some bright cheery way to begin the column, but just can't seem to find either the inclination or the words. For some reason last week was sort of a 'Jonah' for just about everyone we know. Just a few catastrophes included robberies of Waveland Drug Store and Scribshaw's last Friday night; Charlie Mollere suffered a severe stroke the same night and was returned to Veteran's Hospital in Biloxi by ambulance Saturday morning; a new outbreak of flu seems to be making the rounds in company with another of those ever present viruses. We did have one unbelievably lovely, warm, sunny day before the rains and winter returned; the only bright spot we can recall at the moment.

Well, just like writing someone a nasty letter then tearing it up, getting the above off of our chest seems to make us feel a bit better. Now let's look around for some good news!

Annabel and Dick Proctor are latest on our proud grandparent list. Daughter Ann (Mrs. Howard) Franks gave birth to her first, a little girl to be christened Leslie Ann, in a New Orleans hospital last week.

John Searles to the rescue

More very glad tidings. When we called Bill Kenny Saturday, he had just returned from visiting Frank Lanton who was seriously injured in an accident Jan. 16 and reports that he is much improved. Most of the stitches have been removed and the surgeons did a beautiful job. He still has wrist and ankle injuries but should emerge from the near fatal mishap with no permanent ill effects.

Incidentally, John Searles, the young man whose quick actions probably prevented Frank from bleeding to death, is engaged to a Hancock County girl, Donna Fay Necaise of White Cypress. Donna is Ed Ford's secretary and happened to be in the Bay with her boss last Friday and lunched with Mary Catherine Moran.

Birthday greetings go to Mrs. James DeRose who was honored at a surprise party planned by two young Farrar Lane neighbors, Kathy Eaton and Doris Davis on Jan. 24. Linda (Mrs. Tommy) Kidd enjoyed duck and rabbit along with her birthday cake Sunday.

Grace and Sam Bordages are driving around in a very fancy blue station wagon and Elaine and Roy Walters and tiny daughter, Wendy, drove over from Slidell Friday in their brand new Volkswagens.

Red Hunter returned home from Touro last Friday and we're hoping to see him up and about in a hurry. Henry Develle is also under the weather. Hypertension, the same ailment which had the better (?) half, Herman, that is, down for a couple of days last week.

Whose bone?

Who is looking for a lovely hunk of pork weighing approximately 50 pounds which was obviously due to go in someone's freezer? Rev. and Mrs. J. C. Rousseau would very much like to know as it ended up in their yard. The owner is welcome to what remains after several dogs chewed on it and dragged it into the Rousseaus' Jeff Davis yard. Someone had quite a loss, but there were some mighty full dogs in that area last Friday!

Mr. and Mrs. Myron Smith are looking forward to meeting their daughter-in-law for the first time next week. Lt. and Mrs. Myron Smith, Jr., were wed in England last March and returned to the states last Wednesday. They are visiting Karen's parents in Kansas at present.

Bette Hill has returned from Chicago where she went to see her mother who has been quite ill, but didn't enjoy herself as the Windy City's chill was too much for her Mississippi thinned blood and she ended up in a hospital for much of her visit.

The pot-luck social sponsored by Our Lady of the Gulf Church coming up at 7:30 p.m. Sunday, sounds like lots of fun. The cleverly worded announcement suggests that everyone stop and take a good look round and get acquainted with their neighbors. This will be an excellent opportunity for newcomers and natives to get to know one another. The glee club from the Oblate Seminary will provide music for the affair. So everyone, trot out your favorite recipe, (bring the kids as Junior Legion of Mary members offer free baby sitting) and discover how your neighbors cook.

Dog doings

If any of our readers own a dog who has not received his leptospirosis shot, PLEASE take it to your veterinarian immediately and have the injection. We knew almost nothing about this usually fatal canine disease until Catchie's adored Prissy became desperately ill last week.

Welcome to Waveland Louise and Charlie Smith who have rented Lois and Pat Glass' Waveland Avenue home.

Mrs. Sylvester Benigno took off via jet for St. Petersburg, Fla., and a visit with her daughter Joann and son-in-law, Paul Graitge. She'll remain there until the arrival of the first little Graitge due almost any day now.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Patterson of New Orleans, who own a summer home on the Jordan River, and Jeanne and Frank Lister were dinner guests of Louise and Joe Wyner last Saturday night. Pate, Gene and Reves Watkins were also present.

Who'll reign?

Rumor has it that a tall slender blonde will rule as queen of the S.J.A. Carnival Ball and that her king, also quite tall, is a rising young attorney. Last year's royalty isn't faring too well at the moment. Queen Evelyn Weston has a severe cold and retiring king, Bob Kemery is recovering from an attack of kidney stones.

Kay and Robert Boh will arrive here Friday along with sons Gordon and Michael. They'll visit the Ray Gordons and Roger Bohs and attend the Denizens of the Deep Mock Carnival Ball Friday night.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Canady at their Dogwood Drive home this week is Jane Trogon of Alamosa, Colo., who is a student at LSU in Baton Rouge. Anyone seen a strange male and Mrs. Camille Asher, 90 celebrated their 48th anniversary Sunday, Jan. 26. Attending the party were Mr. and Mrs. Donald Marston, children, Mr. and Mrs. J. Quarterman and children, Mrs. Doris Marquardt and family, Mr. and Mrs. Asher and children, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bermond and family, and R. J. Asher. The bride of a few months, Jina, is proving so well in all household tasks the show is over. Local winners beside George include Mrs. Gordon from down our way, Bay Patrolman Frank from down our way, and expert car, Mr. and Mrs. Kerney Perkle of New Orleans announce the coming marriage of their daughter, Darlene Rose to Thomas Hayes Durell, Jr., also of New Orleans. The wedding will take place Saturday Feb. 8. After a Gulf Coast honeymoon the young couple will reside at 1017 Jena St. Miss Perkle is well known in Lakeshore, being a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. (Mum) Bourke of Ansley, and a niece of Mrs. Lillian McCarty and Mrs. Margaret Sebens, both nurses.

Irene McCarty, first teacher at Gulfview, for 4 1/2 years has resigned her position. At the present time Mrs. Williams, retired, is filling the position. Mrs. McCarty had to finish out the year, a new teacher was sent to look over her room and whether she wanted the job.

Lillian McCarty, community nurse, recovered from the auto accident she had this past fall, resumed her nursing duties at Lakeshore General.

As well wishes are extended to the following: Mrs. Patsy Williams, who has surgery Tuesday at Lakeshore General, to Jack, local sportsman who is married to a heart conduction, Leon Ladner of Bayou La Batre, Mrs. Francis Asher, Mrs. Ernestine Roland, of "Doc" who was the drug store pharmacist for many years. Happy birthday wish is to Brenda LaFontaine who recently 15 - also best friend to my favorite niece by age, Mrs. Shirley Green, who was recently 19. Poole's Drifting Mississippis have drifted back to the Country Club where they will play Friday and Saturday. The O'Toole band appeared at Audrey's and formerly the Lake Civic Hall.

Wednesday Sandy checked in to the Ochsner Clinic where she was x-rayed to see how well her arm is doing the operation on Dec. 19, out of the uncomfortable but must wear a comfort for a few weeks. All tests and great improvement for me I am deeply grateful.

My deepest sympathy to my Zengaring in the loss of his wife, Miss Ethel, Once Gulfview faculty member, Ethel and Johnnie never had a graduation, or party school.

Mrs. Grace Horton, R. N., Lakeshore General, is recovering from major surgery performed in Memorial Hospital last week. Her many friends and fellow employees send get wishes.

Our deepest sympathy to family of young Captain who lost his life in a boat accident—also to the family of Dr. Shipp our former health doctor.

Squelch

First a trio from Bonanza broke their agreement to appear at the Mississippi Commerce and Industry Exposition scheduled for Saturday at Jackson; then Al Hirt just didn't show up for a March of Dimes program at Jackson; and Monday night James Webb failed to appear at the legislative welcoming dinner annually sponsored by the Chambers of Commerce of Jackson and Hinds County.

In all cases the excuse of segregation was used, but in all cases this was known when these people agreed to be present. As far as the individuals are concerned they at least have this in common—they are not men of their word.

Now quite aside from that simple fact is another aspect to these incidents quite possibly more serious to the entertainers. Two of the events have come off quite well without their appearance and the entertainment at Saturday's Mississippi Commerce and Industry Exposition promises to be far more unusual without a tv group one can see any week without making a special effort.

(In case some of our readers don't know who James Webb is, he is the person responsible for admitted billions in waste by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration.)

May help

Recently an organization new to us started a branch in the Bay-Waveland area. Our interest lies in the fact that it may prove to be a real boon to the area.

Called Al-Anon, or Al-Anon Family Group, its members are husbands, wives, relatives or close friends of alcoholics and its purpose is to make life more serene for those who must live with an alcoholic and indirectly to assist the alcoholic.

While it has no direct connection with Alcoholics Anonymous, Al-Anon seems to operate much as does AA in banding together an understanding group with a common problem.

We know so little about Al-Anon we can't exactly recommend it, but AA has certainly been of help to thousands of alcoholics and our slight information about Al-Anon indicates it may be of similar value to close associates of alcoholics.

Anyhow, those in the Bay-Waveland area who want to know more about Al-Anon should write P. O. Box 261, Waveland.

where to locate the proposed addition, he said, and trustees discussed available adjacent properties. Wagner added that when he and Superintendent Robert F. Lachner visited the school last week he was most impressed with the delicious lunch served.

Trustee S. P. Powell inquired whether Wagner could proceed with the Pearlington project but the architect reminded him this is tied into the bond issue. He added firm plans should be forthcoming in the near future after more conferences and thought.

On moving the Catholic Church buildings to North Central for teachers' quarters he advised only one structure was usable and suggested it might be salvaged for shop use and storage until needed for future construction. Annunciation Parish had given these buildings to the school system.

Resignation of Mrs. K. G. McCarty from the Gulfview faculty effective Jan. 20 was accepted on the superintendent's recommendation. Lachner took occasion to present a written statement to the board declaring that teachers should "be scrupulously faithful to their contracts and promises. When a contract has been signed it should be adhered to until mutually dissolved..." On the recommendation of Principal Oren Seal he asked the board to retain Miss Evelyn Francis of Hattiesburg to fill the first grade vacancy.

The new superintendent presented the board a statement of policy which he had given the teachers and other employees of the system at a staff meeting earlier in the week. Question of firing the pay of Mrs. Albert Strong, Lachner's secretary, was raised but Board President E. P. Ory explained she would draw what her predecessor did and it remained to be determined what additional, if any, she can handle the job which formerly required two women.

Authority was given to Walter Davidson, HNC member, to conduct such necessary business at Gulfview and Hattiesburg as may be required in connection with the Hattiesburg All track.

Russell, Hava, Miller take show honors

Three Bay-Waveland residents brought home top prizes from the 10th annual Gulfport Men's Camellia Society show last weekend.

Mrs. Dan M. Russell, Jr., won the silver award for the best arrangement in the show, her entry in Magic with Camellias while Mrs. Paul M. Miller captured the runner-up award in that category for her interpretation of The Vikings.

Dr. W. C. Hava won the super sweepstakes trophy, a competition open only to previous sweepstakes winners and his Ville DeNantes took runner-up honors for the outstanding blossom, protected. Dr. Hava's Betty Sheffield Supreme was in the court of honor for unprotected blossoms.

Mrs. Russell also won blue ribbons in two other arrangement divisions, Mardi Gras and Secrets of Oriental Art, and Mrs. Miller got two blues for After the Ball and Clear Cool Waters.

Pirates surprise Hawks

Hancock North Central suffered its second defeat of the season at the hands of Pass Christian Tuesday night in the Pirates' gym 45-44 in two overtime periods but the junior varsity came through with a 28-25 win.

The Hawks started cold, scoring only points in the first quarter against the Pirates' 10, led in the second and third 11-4 and 13-9 but dropped the fourth 10-14 for a 37-37 tie. The first overtime was 4-4. The Pirates wound up ahead in the second 8-7.

High scorer for the Hawks was Berlin Lader with 18, only shooter able to hit in double figures. For Pass Christian it was Wayne Moran 21 and Robert Hinks 11.

High scorer for the junior Hawks was Kenny Malley with 10.

The Hawks are scheduled to play Thursday night in the Gulf Coast Conference Tournament at Harrison Central, meeting the winner of the St. Martin-Pearl River Central game last night.

The purpose of the organization is to create an interest in the band program, to have better parent-band relationship and to cooperate with the school administration.

Future plans for the band were discussed and the organization is looking ahead to help raise funds for band uniforms.

Extend replies to Chamber's newcomer fete

Acceptance deadline has been extended until Monday for the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce's party for newcomers planned at 10 a.m. next Thursday at Bay-Waveland Yacht Club, according to Mrs. Wayne Ducomb, chairman of the newcomers' information service committee.

Invitations were extended last week to 100 newcomers who registered with the chamber and have yet to attend one of its welcome parties. Only 22 had accepted by noon Wednesday. There are 272 on the chamber list.

Local businesses have donated prizes to be given away at the party which will have a Mardi Gras theme and a queen selected by a drawing. The sponsoring committee hopes all local merchants will participate and any who have not been contacted but would like to help are asked to phone Mrs. Ducomb or Mrs. Fred Wagner.

Bay boxers gain district titles

The Bay St. Louis boxing team, composed of five local lads, battled their way to two championships and one runner-up slot in the South Mississippi Golden Gloves Tournament last weekend at Hattiesburg and will compete in the state finals Jan. 30-Feb. 1 at Jackson. Winners will represent Mississippi in the mid-south finals in Memphis, Tenn., manager Buck Price said.

Showing plenty of determination, speed, confidence and dynamite in either hand, Buck Marquar won the 147 pound novice welterweight title with three successive knockouts, two in the first round and one in the third.

Donald Marquar, Jr., showed plenty of class and ring generalship to win the 112 pound novice flyweight title with two first round TKO's during the first two nights and a unanimous decision in the finals.

In Golden Glove competition boxers are put in the novice class until they have had five bouts.

Run-up Jerry Choina who after reaching the finals lost a decision but not without rocking his opponent several times with a good right hand.

Harvey Mitchell lost a disputed decision in the 135 pound lightweight class but put up such a good fight he got a standing ovation after the match. Bobbing and weaving, Harvey had his opponent in trouble on several occasions.

Emile Bourgeois of Waveland, also fighting in the novice lightweight class, gave the crowd a lot of thrills with his crowd-pleasing unorthodox style and scored a TKO the first night but was a victim of one in the semi-finals.

Another local man, Terrell Randolph, refereed the bouts

PROCLAMATION
1964 CHILDREN'S DENTAL HEALTH WEEK
February 2-8

WHEREAS, many of the citizens and members of the dental profession of this municipality are concerned with the prevention of dental disease; and
WHEREAS, early preventive measures and education of children and youth can aid in preventing a large part of the incidence of dental disease, especially tooth decay, and can help to ensure the good dental health of future generations of adults;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, John Scaride, Mayor of Bay St. Louis, do hereby proclaim the week of February 2 through 8, 1964, as Children's Dental Health Week in Bay St. Louis and urge that all citizens and all community organizations join in the observance.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the City of Bay St. Louis to be affixed, this 20th day of January, 1964.

Hawks repeat triumph in BHS invitational

ACTION - St. Stanislaus' Curtis Matherne pockets one but Rocks lost to Hawks.

Defending champs Hancock North Central powered their way through the area's top basketball stars for a repeat performance winning the annual Bay High Invitational, beating Bay High 74-47 in the finals Saturday night.

Local girls fared not so well, North Central being eliminated by Pearl River Central Thursday 40-47, Bay High beating St. Joseph 58-52 Friday and the Tigerettes bowing out to Pass Christian Saturday 60-50, the Pass ladies winning the tourney beating Harrison Central 51-39.

Most thrilling game was Saturday's contest between North Central and Slidell, La., when the Hawks had to overcome a 45-40 third quarter score. With only seconds left to play and the Hawks trailing 58-59, Berlin Lader had a perfect corner shot to win 60-59.

Star shooter of the series was Pass Christian's Carolyn Scarborough who racked up 38 points against Bay High and 37 against Harrison Central. Tigerette Sherlyn Cochran scored 30 against St. Joseph and 25 in a losing effort against Pass High.

Thursday night's scores were: Bay High 91, Notre Dame of Biloxi 53; St. Stanislaus 57, Pearl River Central 47; girls, Pearl River Central 60, Hancock North Central 47.

Friday, Long Beach 78, Pass Christian 65; Slidell 63, Ocean Springs 59; girls, Bay High 58, St. Joseph Academy 52.

Saturday, Bay High 71, Long Beach 50; North Central 60, Slidell 59; North Central 74, Bay High 47; girls, Pass Christian 60, Bay High 50; Harrison Central 47, Pass Christian 51, Harrison Central 39.

In addition to sinking the winning shot in the semi-finals, Berlin racked up a total of 65 points, getting 38 in the finals. Rockchaw Curtis Matherne pilled up 30 against North Central and Hawk Wendell Lader got 29, Bay High's Larry Harrison was top scorer in all its games getting 19, 33 and 13.

In the finals North Central took an early lead and piled up more in every quarter, 15-10, 16-14, 20-10 and 21-11. Larry Harrison and Ross Maurigi got 13 and 12 points for the losers and Berlin and Wendell Lader 38 and 16. The Hawks used their press play to good advantage in winning their 21st game of the season against one defeat.

It was sweet revenge for Bay High's Tigerettes Friday night when they whipped St. Joseph Academy's Gold Jays. This was the third time the rivals have clashed this year, the Gold Jays having won twice, once on Dec. 17 by a score of 43-42 after a hard-fought see-for the host squad with seven.

In the freshman contest Mike Necaise accounted for 18 of Bay High's 24 points as the squad lost 25-24. Leon Favre for four and Tommy Blalock two, Kessinger was tops for Ocean Springs with 10.

saw battle. In Friday's game three girls on each team fouled out, for Bay High Maria Peterson, Geraldine Kidd and Deanie McCordie and for St. Joseph Brenda Hudson, Janie Ferry and Mary Toni Lader. Jo Mary Artigues scored 21 and Susie Rhodes 17 for St. Joseph and Sherlyn Cochran 30 and Melva Luke 21 for the Tigerettes.

St. Joseph started slowly and it was 14-11 after the first quarter but a big second period put them ahead 29-28 at half-time. The Tigerettes opened up in the third regaining the lead 43-40 and took the final frame 15-12.

SCIENCE SPEAKER

As part of the high school visitation program, Dr. Louis Embrey, Laurel, optometrist, presented a program on vision and contact lenses at St. Stanislaus College, Jan. 23. He also discussed the Junior Academy of Science Contest, Science Clubs, the JETS, Science Fairs, the Junior Engineers and Scientists Summer Institute (JESSI), and the Summer Science Institutes (NST sponsored).

Hawks nudge G'port

With five seconds remaining and the Hawks trailing Gulfport's Commodores 48-50, Hancock North Central's star guard Eddie Peterson hit the basket to tie up the game and his mates went on to win 50-54 in a three-minute overtime period last Wednesday in a District Eight A-AA game in Hawk gym. Gulfport's B-team took the opener 66-43.

It was one of North Central's toughest games this year, Gulfport taking a 12-11 lead in the first period but the Hawks were ahead 27-22 at half-time and 38-37 after the third period. The Commodores then took a six-point lead early in the final quarter but the Hawks battled back desperately, star center Wendell Lader, who is team top scorer, fouling out during the mele.

Wendell scored 21, Berlin Lader 17 and Peterson 10, Werlin Lader got 11 for the B-team.

Rocks, Tigers post road wins

St. Stanislaus and Bay High varsity cagers took victories on the road Jan. 21, the Rocks nipping St. John's 59-57 at Gulfport while the Tigers beat Ocean Springs 79-72 there.

Waymon Carr paced Stanislaus scoring with 23 points while Curtis Matherne added 15 and Donald Delaune 10, David Drye was high for St. John's with 19. The Rocks led 8-0 after the first four minutes but chilled in the third and early fourth periods, trailing by six points with two minutes to play. Then they staged a full court press and Cricket Bradford got two good steals. With five seconds remaining the score was tied and Moe Scaffie took a rebound to Carr who tossed to Delaune and the ball hit the net as the buzzer sounded.

Rock junior varsity fared not quite as well, losing 36-37. Mickey Waller was high at 12 for the Little Rocks while Gary Gac led St. John's with 18. Larry Johnson had a field night as he tossed in 35 points to spark the Bay High win while Larry Harrison contributed 21. The Tigers mopped up in all period except the third when the Greyhounds prevailed 20-12. Unidentified No. 4 was high scorer for Ocean Springs with 22 points while Frank Galle got 15 and Mike Griggs 12.

The Tiger B team came through 57-31 as Mike Strong got 17 points, Dick Watts 13, Bruce Cox and Barry Kneeland, 10 each, Griggs was high
